Lauren Murphy Counselling Services Ltd

Information and contract for new clients

First Session

I will take an overview of your present situation. I will discuss with you what you hope to gain from Counselling. The first session will provide an opportunity for me to see if I can support you in achieving your personal goals and for you to decide if you will be able to work with me.

Fees

I charge £55 per session for one-on-one clients and £65 per session for couples clients, I request that fees are to be paid before each session. I will provide my bank details separately.

Confidentiality

Our work together is confidential. The only exceptions are when the life or safety of yourself or others are at risk. For example, I have the duty to pass information on if the following is disclosed:

- That a child is at risk of significant harm.
- Planned serious harm to the life of yourself or another person.
- If there is serious risk of harm or abuse to a vulnerable adult.
- Information given on any planned terrorism.
- If a court order has requested my notes.
- Information given on money laundering.

Good Practice and Supervision

I abide by the BACP Code of ethics and complaint procedures. These are laid down to maintain good practice standards and to protect both Counsellors and the general public. I have regular supervision from a BACP approved Supervisor and whilst discussing my casework I will avoid disclosing details which may identify you as an individual.

Therapy sessions and agreed working conditions

- Counselling sessions will take place as agreed by Client and Counsellor in a confidential setting
- Each session will last for 50 minutes.
- Please arrive for your sessions at the agreed appointment time, if you are late, the normal finishing time still applies.
- In the event that you need to cancel your appointment, I ask that you contact me ASAP on my mobile 07725 734 205 with as much notice as possible.

Appointments cancelled within 48 hours with incur a 50% charge, if you do not attend a session, without notice, the full fee will still be payable.
